Subject: Weekly FBI team update
Since last week's update, members of the FBI team, as members of the FBI team, have: been working on Compliance Program issues as related to the FBI; reviewing FBI records (principally BRILAB electronic surveillance transcripts and logs, and files on Mark Lane) to determine to what extent they should be processed under the JFK Act; working on "wrap-up" of the Hosty interview; coordinating with our CIA team and the HRG the release of or evidence-production* for CIA postponements in the FBI's core and related files; and preparing postponements in the core-and-related files for Board review.Of course, each member of the FBI team has responsibilities for other agencies (Secret Service, INS, Postal Service, IRS, Customs, ATF, main Treasury, various offices and divisions of main Justice, and others) or functions (FOIA officer, Compliance Program, meeting-manager, and many research projects unrelated to identification and release of FBI assassination records).
