Subject: Hosty release update
Tom suggested we hold off issuing the release until I speak with Susan Cooper. After a few hours of phone tag, I just learned that Cooper is gone for the day and will be at Archives--downtown--(in the event you did not know, the Public Affairs office recently moved to Archives II) all day tomorrow working on the opening of an exhibit.Christopher took the release to her today on the 1:00 shuttle, but the woman I spoke to in her office did not know if Cooper had seen it before she left.I left a detailed message with the receptionist in Cooper's office (the receptionist told me that Cooper would be in touch to obtain messages -- they are having problems with the downtown phone system.)So I may or may not be in touch with Cooper in the next 24 hours -- I'll keep you posted.
