Subject: Air Force One Tapes at LBJ Library--Research Lead

The edited, condensed, version of the Air Force One 11/22/63 radio transmission audiotapes which researchers and historians are now studying originated with the LBJ library. Some entity (unknown) performed the editing, perhaps even the White House Communications agency, the entity which is believed responsible for having recorded the tapes in the first place. Listed below are the designations of the tapes given to NARA by the LBJ library: -NLJ 3 SRT 969-1-NLJ 4 SRT 969-2-NLJ 5 SRT 969-3 Request: please examine the LBJ library file on these audiotapes to try to determine which government entity forwarded the tapes to the LBJ library, and when; this information could be crucial to our attempts to locate the original, unedited tapes.
