Subject: Tunheim's appearance on Oprah
On Tuesday, November 19, 1996, Judge Tunheim was present for a taping of an episode of "The Oprah Winfrey Show." Judge Tunheim, a guest on the show, flew from Washington, DC to Chicago and back on November 19, 1996. As is policy, Harpo Productions paid for this airfare. Ground Transportation was also provided by the production company, to and from the studio. This was a limousine service that Harpo Productions uses regularly called "Astor Limousine"---I have no idea what that service is "worth." A total of $25 was given to Judge Tunheim and Tom Samoluk (Associate Director for Communications) to buy breakfast before the taping of the show. This appearance was taped at: The Oprah Winfrey Show 110 N. Carpenter Street Chicago, IL 60607
