

NR_key_name: 53ADBDC8EA6595638525649C004B6125
SendTo: CN=Joseph Freeman/O=ARRB @ ARRB
CopyTo:
DisplayBlindCopyTo:
BlindCopyTo: CN=R ecord/O=ARRB
From: CN=Laura Denk/O=ARRB
DisplayFromDomain:
DisplayDate: 05/19/1997
DisplayDate_Time: 10:48:07 AM
ComposedDate: 05/19/1997
ComposedDate_Time: 9:43:21 AM
Subject: neglect

Every single day, I say "I must write Joe a long e-mail today and fill him in on everything that has been happening here." But then, more stuff happens and then the length of the e-mail that I need to send gets longer -- so -- the buck stops here. I have decided just to write you and see how you are doing instead of writing you a long treatise of life-as-it-is-lived at the Review Board. I wish you were coming here to work next week and I have included notes to David in my weekly reports asking him whether you can come to work, but he hasn't responded to them, so maybe he wants to hold off. Unclear. Anyway, how is everything in Phoenix. We are going to have a high temp. of 94 today, so we can think of you out in AZ being really hot every day. I'm sure you read the e-mail that I sent to ALL today about Kevin and Sue having little Grace Culpepper Tiernan early Sunday morning. I talked to Kevin this morning and he sounded really happy. Everything went very smoothly, though the baby was breech, so they had to do a C-section. All is well. The baby was 5 lbs. 8 oz. and 19 inches long. Yay! We'll have to scan her picture onto the computer so that you can see a picture of her in "Where in the World." :-)

Wedding planning is going just fine. I went home for a shower this weekend & had a good time. The best gift came from my great-grandmother who died two years ago at age 104 -- but my grandmother brought the gift. I had no idea that she had done this, but in the years before she died, she made each one of the great granddaughters a cross-stitch quilt that we were to have for wedding presents, so my grandmother gave it to me yesterday. She made my quilt when she was 98 years old! It is totally beautiful, white with circles of green leaves and acorns. Pretty cool, huh?

Work is really busy. I like the new job -- a lot, actually -- but my days operate at a much faster pace than they did in my quiet little corner. So far, so good, though. I'm looking forward to having some time off in July! I've been running a lot (the last 10 weeks 40+ miles each) but still haven't entered a race in '97. We'll see if I will sustain this anti-race attitude all the way through the year. Is the Phoenix weather still spurring you on to run more and more? I hope you're doing well & that you and Carolyn are still happy to have moved. I feel terrible for not writing sooner, but this at least will get me started on my long journey out of the dog house. (Speaking of dogs -- any news on your dog?) Talk to you soon!

Body:
recstat: Record
DeliveryPriority: N
DeliveryReport: B
ReturnReceipt:
Categories: