Subject: article about FOIA

Mike Springman (Washington College of Law) is writing an article for a law review about FOIA. In this article he intends to make the point that entities such as the Review Board can eliminate the FOIA process. He would like to discuss the Review Board and FOIA with you (he said he spoke with Jeremy briefly last week and knows he is away this week.) He asked me how many staffers we have (I gave him an estimate---its actually 26.) He also asked how many people on our staff were lawyers, as opposed to analysts. I explained that there is a lot of crossover here, and again, did not give an exact number--its actually 5 (right?), including Tom S.) He may ask again What he really wants is to discuss FOIA issues. His phone number is 202-686-4869.
