Subject: Congressional Hearings

I received word yesterday afternoon from Dan Moll, Deputy Chief of Staff for the House Committee on Oversight and Reform. They want to schedule hearings for the first week of June (possibly June 4th). I told Dan that the Board had something planned for the 4th and would need to know soon if we needed to reschedule. He explained that the timing of the Hearing depended in part on the schedule of Congressman Hastert, the Chairman of the Subcommittee on National Security, International Affairs, and Criminal Justice. We agreed to speak on Tuesday morning to nail down the schedule. Moll explained that they envisioned three panels (although they had not yet issued any invitations): Panel 1 - Stokes, Specter; Panel 2 - Bruce Hitchcock (the High School teacher from Indiana), Page Miller; Panel 3 - Tunheim, Tilley. I will keep you posted. Have a pleasant weekend.
