Subject: Hello and Happy August!

Can you believe the first week of August is about over?! How are you all doing? We're fine. Just getting geared up for school which starts Sept. 2nd, which I can;t believe is now less than one month away. Trying to figure out the best place for the kids for after school care, etc.How are Michael, Tom, John and the cats? Have you ever heard about your big black dog that you gave away? We had a frog, but decided to let him go because he wasn't eating like he should have been (he was wild), so we got some fish, nothing fancy. But, the kids seem to enjoy them and are taking care of the minute feeding requirement pretty consistently, which is good.Thankfully, the weather has really cooled down to about low 80's which is wonderful. Little Stevie just wilts in the heat! Unless they are in the pool. What are your plans for the Labor Day weekend? Did you renew your free email? I haven't recieved a disk yet. If you have a chance, email me the number for aol.com and I can call.Steve and I were thinking of fun stuff we could all do if you could come visit for Christmas, or whenever you could come out. Massanutten, a mountain resort about an hour and 45 minutes from here, where we have a time share, has an opening for the week of 19-26 December , and they have skiing (nothing major in terms of black diamond skill, but its plenty difficult for me and the kids) and lots of fun stuff, plus its beautiful. Let me know what you think.Please give our regards to everyone there, and to Cindy, Sam and Patrick . Hope to hear from you soon.PS - I wrote a letter to Sneakers family - Maelinn and Rick Brooks- in January, but could not find their address that you gave me to mail it to them. If you come across their address again would you email or send it to me in the box with the pictures? Thanks.
