Subject: Re: Document Inquiry to ARRB (Italian SIFAR files)

Eric, I do not know whether the SIFAR documents (Italian Govt. records related to Carcano Rifles) are fully released or not. They are Warren Commission-era records, and something tells me they were once Top Secret. One source which will give you background on them is Evica's book (from the 1970s) "And We Are All Mortal." Presumably, however, a data base search will answer the essential questions. Please check with Doug to see if he knows. Then check WC records and ask Steve (if necessary). I would like to provide Herr Professor with the RIF numbers of the records. Please get back in touch with me quickly. Thanks. To: Jeremy Gunn/ARRBcc: From: Eileen Sullivan/ARRB Date: 08/05/97 09:14:12 AM Subject: Re: Document Inquiry to ARRB (Italian SIFAR files) Any input? He there suggested that the Italian SIFAR files be consulted, as to further identify the Fucile M 1938 Carcano. In the original interrogation of FBI ballistics expert Frazier before the Warren Commission, the Italian answers were purposely edited out, as you may recall. Has Mr. Evica's suggestion been followed - are the Italian SIFAR documents now available to researchers? Yours sincerely, Alexander Eichener c96@ix.urz.uni-heidelberg.de
