Subject: Attached Alyea Letter and Deed of Gift

E-When you have time, please review the attached letter from me to Alyea. If it is okay, please put it on letterhead, sign it "Tom" for me and fax it to Alyea, along with the Deed of Gift that Laura did (also attached below). I want the fax code to read as coming from our DC office, not here in Boston. Please let me know what you think. Please e-mail me that deed of gift. I do not seem to have one in my files up here. Thanks.TomTo: David Marwell/ARRBcc: Tom Samoluk/ARRB, Eileen Sullivan/ARRB From: Laura Denk/ARRB Date: 08/05/97 11:10:33 AMSubject: AlyeaI reviewed my file on the Alyea deed of gift. After re-reading the handwritten receipt that Tom Samoluk and Alyea signed on May 5, 1996, it does seem like the best idea is to try to get Alyea to sign a deed of gift. I think that your suggestion of having Tom call Alyea and assure him that a deed of gift that protects his copyright will be sufficient to protect Alyea from other people profiting from commercial use of the film. At one point, I did prepare a deed of gift with the standard copyright protection phrase included, but Alyea never signed it.
