Subject: Congratulations

The Holocaust Museum is lucky to get you, though the corresponding loss to the Review Board is, of course, enormous. Carolyn worked with a Mary Morrison (who, last she heard, is still working at the museum) at the PR/Strategic Communications firm of Robinson-Lake a few years back, and I feel vaguely attached to the Museum via the Swett-Lantos connection, so it remains an oddly small world. In any event, it does seem like a good match and a great opportunity for you. Thanks for your support and friendship at the Review Board, and best of luck.
