Subject: Tip From NASA Friend

Body: Tracy:My friend over at NASA told me that when he has frequently had an astronaut assigned to him to work the Hill, requiring the individual to be in Washington a few days a week for prolonged periods of time (several months at a time), they have put people up at something called "Capitol Hill Suites," located at 2nd and D, SW. He thought that was the name. At any rate, it is reportedly respectable and reasonable.Tom
