Subject: Peter C. Glynn, Jr.

Sydney and Jim came through and located Mr. Glynn yesterday, in spite of his unlisted number. I just called him, explained the JFK Act, our charter, etc. and invited him to come to Washington on Wednesday to meet with Kermit Hall and a few people on our staff about his interview in 1977 with the HSCA re: ASA records. He sounded amenable to coming up here Wednesday--but would not make a final commitment. I told him I would call him Monday and we would make "final plans" ---whether he comes or not, what time, etc. He seemed to prefer the idea of us coming to see him, but I explained that he should view this as a complement that we wanted him to come to Washington to meet with Kermit. Jeremy, please provide guidance to me on Monday whether:-he should come on day of Board Meeting, or following day;-if so, what time;-or do we go to see him? [He is in Dumfries, near Quantico and Triangle.] I told him I would call him Monday A.M..
