Camilo, You thought I would forget, didn't you. I can't tell you how important it was for us to have you there on Friday. I'm sure Marbea and my mom said the same thing many times, but let me say it again. It was great that you could come down. We, as a family, have an incredible bond with you mother, and that transfers to her family. We wish that she could have come, but you stood in her absence. I think I also told you that you and your sisters were heavy in my thoughts all last week. I just can't imagine going through this as a little kid. You must be strong. I wish we could have hung out more, and under different circumstances. Hopefully you will come down to D.C. soon for a long weekend or something. Take care, Camilo. Kevin
