Subject: party at David's house
David's party is definitely scheduled for next Saturday night, September 27. He has not yet announced the time, but he told us "early evening," presumably 5:00ish. Would you like to go? (David has a cool new kitchen, you know) Anyway, I need to report whether I will be bringing my spouse (that's you) or just myself. How is your day going? Kevin and I are working on foreign liaison issues today. Joy. I go to see Lorraine at 6 pm and I should be out of there before 7 pm. Would you like to run later? What time is your appointment with Bob?
Body: And, yes, I would like to have lunch with you.
