DeliveryPriority: again to try to get a sense of the likelihood that the Board could obtain these records for inclusion in the JFK
N
DeliveryReport: Collection at the National Archives. He explained that the reason the chancellor wants to hold on to them is
ReturnReceipt: that he views them as a gift, and he does not want to alienate any past or future donors.He ("half-jokingly" -- Categories: his words) said that the only way he'll get rid of them is if we subpoena the papers. He does not see the papers as particularly significant, and said they do not really fit in with the rest of the collections in TCU's library.
