Subject: Review Track Question
Some records have dual Board Determination Dates listed in Review Track. Can't remember if this is standard or not. Case in point: HSCA record 180-10087-10108, w/Board Determination Date listed twice: 12/20/96 and 1/27/97. Is there a standard way to read these cases: i.e., is the "real" date always the second one? This particular record is not in the boxes at NARA II, which would make sense (according to Eileen's e-mail of Friday) if it was a January document, not a December one. Any thoughts?
