I spoke with Shelly today. She will call you tomorrow; or, if she doesn't reach you, you may call her at 202-994-9516. She is really swamped with work right now. She is working on the bibliography, but doesn't know whether she can finish before she goes home for the holidays. Her last test is on the 16th and she will be flying out on the 17th (she will come to the party if her flight is later in the day). I suggested she speak with you directly about giving you an interim report or waiting until she finishes. She said she will be coming in next Thursday or Friday.
