Subject: FedEx and Couriers

Let me know what you think.It has come to our attention that packages are being sent via courier and FedEx that should be sent via the U.S. mail. You should all operate under the assumption that unless you have been specifically instructed to use an alternate service, you should use 1st class U.S. mail. If you would like to send something via courier or FedEx, please get my approval first. If I am not here, please see Jeremy or Tom for approval. Obviously, in emergency cases we trust you to use your good judgement.Thanks in advance for your cooperation. If you have any questions/concerns, please feel free to ask.
