ATTORNEY-CLIENT PRIVILEGEAs I predicted during the conference call on Thursday, the Zapruders rejected DOJ's offer of three million dollars. The Zapruders have hired Bob Bennett of Skadden Arps to represent them. In a "Dear Frank" letter to Assistant A.G. Frank Hunger, Bennett rejected the offer as "irrational and wholly inadequate." He said that he believes he needs to look into "the hazy authority of the Records Review Board to order the taking of personal property." I am sending to you by FedEx today a copy of the DOJ letter and Bennett's reply.
