Subject: Telephone Call
While I was on phones during Janice's lunch, you received a phone call from Todd Cohen. I told him you were not in today but I might be able to reach you and ask you to call him. He said he would call tomorrow if you would be in and I told him I was unsure whether you would be in on Friday. He said he was an associate from Covington & Burling and was calling from London and asked if you were home today. I told him I thought you might be. He said he had your home number and might call you at home.
