Tidbit Du Jour...Vulgar Language Used in the Office
It has been brought to the attention of management that some individuals have been using foul language in the course of normal conversation between employees. Due to complaints from some of the more sensitive and refined workers, this conduct will no longer be tolerated. The management does, however, realize the importance of each person being able to properly express his feelings when communicating with fellow employees. Therefore, the management has compiled the following coded list. It is imperative all employees understand and implement these phrases so the proper exchange of ideas and information can continue. (Old phrase listed first, new phrase second.)
No fucking way. I'm not certain that's feasible. You're shitting me. Really? Tell someone who gives a shit. Perhaps you should check with... Ask me if I give a shit. Of course I'm concerned. It's not my fucking problem. I wasn't involved with that project. What the fuck? Interesting behavior. Fuck it. It won't work. I'm not sure I can implement this. Why the fuck didn't they tell me sooner? I'll try to schedule that. When the fuck am I supposed to do this? Perhaps I can work late. Who the fuck cares? Are you sure it's a problem? He's got his head up his ass. He's not familiar with the problem. Eat shit. You don't say. Eat shit and die. Excuse me? Eat shit and die, mother fucker. Excuse me, sir? What the fuck do they want from me? They weren't happy with it. Kiss my ass. So, you'd like help with it? Fuck it, I'm on break. I'm a bit overloaded at the moment. Shove it up your ass. I don't think you understand. This job sucks. I love a challenge. Who the hell died and made you boss? You want me to take care of this? Blow me. I see.
