INTERLIANT Date: 03/18/98 10:49:42 AM PSTSubject: Harvey Lee Oswald records.LPDear Laura DenkWith my house in great turmoil, and my office almost unusable,I have been regrettably slow in getting back to you. I return nowto the anomaly of unexplained "Harvey Lee Oswald" references inFBI (and other agency) records.
The easiest explanation forthese widespread references is the existence of archetypalsources not yet in the public domain, which you should try toget if possible. If they no longer exist (which is possible), thenI hope you will request or try toestablish records pertaining to their disappearance.I am glad to note that the ARRB has been willing to interview formerFBI agents; it would I think be appropriate to do so with respectto "Harvey Lee Oswald" records.I attach a partial FBI list of such "HLO" references, exclusive of theMexico situation we discussed, which is excerpted from a fullerlist from all sourceswhich goes back to 1951. (I assume you already have the fulllist, but would be happy to email it again if you wish.)With respect to the Mexico HLO messages from Howard D. Wesley, therewas until recently a telephone listing for a "HowardD. Wesley, Sr.," at 9508 Franklin Ave., Lanham Seabrook, Maryland, tele-phone no. 301-577-3135.You will note that (as in the case of Mexico), most of the HLOreferences come from out-of-the-mainstream FBI posts likeTampa, or Mobile, or Bern Switzerland. I have never seen asingle HLO reference in the voluminous records from the Dallas FBI,even though they occur in the records ofthe Dallas Secret Service, and the Dallas Police.With this in mind, I draw your attention to the first itemin the list, which is Robert Oswald's account of his first FBIinterview after the assassination. According to him, theinterviewing agent said, "Is your brother's name Lee Harvey Oswaldor Harvey Lee Oswald?...We have it here as Harvey Lee."I would invite you to ask Robert Oswald about this, and particularlyfor him to identify the FBI agent who interviewed him. If (as I suspect)he does not cooperate, you could then locate and interrogateformer SA Charles T. Brown, who I suspect was the agent inquestion (though there were two SA Browns acting together that day)."We have it here:" where did the Agent have it? (Even if it wasonly a Police record, that would be something for the ARRB to obtain.)I don't know if James Hosty was ever asked if he had ever heard orseen references to "Harvey Lee Oswald." Is it too late now to askhim? I would like to think that future researchers will note thefact if the ARRB fails to put this question to him.As I said in my phone conversation, I would like the same oranalogous question to be put to those who signed off on the seconditem, the cable from the Legal Attache in Bern.And so down the line: to former SAs Paul Scranton of Miami(fourth item); Eugene I. Tuggey, Jr., and Joseph P. Backusof Los Angeles (sixth item); James
