

NR_key_name: E6186506516FE17385256611005A0B75
SendTo: CN=R ecord/O=ARRB @ ARRB
CopyTo:
DisplayBlindCopyTo:
BlindCopyTo: CN=R ecord/O=ARRB
From: CN=Chet Rhodes/O=ARRB
DisplayFromDomain:
DisplayDate: 05/27/1998
DisplayDate_Time: 12:23:37 PM
ComposedDate: 05/27/1998
ComposedDate_Time: 12:23:32 PM
Subject: Re: FYI
To: Eileen Sullivan/ARRBcc: (bcc: Non-Record/ARRB)From: Tom Samoluk/ARRBDate: 12/03/96 10:50:47
PMSubject: Re: FYIE-Thank you for e-mailing me today. I really miss all of you and the work. After having left, I feel more than ever that the work is important to history and the American public.I'm glad to hear that you got my latest package. Let's see of Boul writes back. Hopefully, Powers is still okay with things.Yes, I received the FedEx. Thanks very much. With the check, I can now get a hot dog for breakfast and lunch.Finally, congratulations on the new addition to the family. I'm sure you are excited about the upcoming visit over the holidays.We're in touch, so you be in touch!TTo: Tom Samoluk/ARRBcc: From: Eileen Sullivan/ARRB Date: 12/03/96 05:33:57 PMSubject: FYII received your envelope today that contained the two (great) letters to Powers and Boul, and the clip from Middlesex News. Thank you. I have passed copies of the letters on to David.David spoke on the phone with a reporter (Brian Boyd) from the Arlington Advocate about the Powers film. David also referred the reporter to Trask. Boyd's deadline is tomorrow (Wed.) morning, so I will check with him to get a copy of the article.On a personal note, I became an aunt for the first time yesterday, and will see my little niece in NY during the holidays. Hope all is going well in Boston (and I hope you received the FedEx today.)
Body:
recstat: Record
DeliveryPriority: N
DeliveryReport: B
ReturnReceipt:
Categories: