A friend of mine works at the local IRS facility here, and on Tuesdayall employees met in meetings with their managers. I was told thatthis does not normally happen as there are several thousand workers, and all work was basically stopped for about 15 minutes as themanagers read a memo to all employees. The memo was a direct "order"from the US Treasury Dept. Basically, all employees had to searchtheir work areas and sign a document stating that they had no files atall pertaining to the assasination of JFK.
