Other than the Goodwin items which werelocated by Irene during her visit to the library 2 weeks ago and mailed(with one exception) to the Board on Friday, 6/19, we are unaware ofany additional ARs in our classified holdings that require declassificationreview and/or transmission to the Board.Unless Irene locates additional material, all outstanding documentspostponed for national security reasons have been reviewed andreleased, in full or in part.Copies of the released documents were also been mailed to theAssassination Collection at the National Archives in February and June,1998.If you have any additional questions concerning this matter, please let meknow.Sincerely,Stephanie Fawcett
