DSL----- Forwarded Message -----From: David Lifton, DLiftonTo: David Lifton, 72303,2702Date: Tue, Jun 23, 1998, 10:13 AMRE: Re: Walter Reed insightSean:Correct.The clique aboard AF-1 that is arranging the Walter Reed diversion are:1. General Clifton (JFK's Army aide; now LBJ's military aide)2. ROy Kellerman3. Dr. Burkleyand then LBJ knows all about it because he tells Marie Fehmer, and shewrites: "5:58 Body with Mrs. K to Walter Reed"That's it for me.These guys---Clifton, Kellerman, Burkley, etc.--are privy to the coup.And yet I met with Clifton, circa Spring 1980, and he looked me right inthe eye and claimed he didn't know about any decoy! He said to me (and Ibelieve I quote this in B.E., chapter 31, in that long long footnotedescribing my meeting with Clifton at his office in Washington: "There wasno decoy."What a liar!THat is just so utterly unlikely.As far as I'm concerned, the clique that knows about (and is arranging)Walter Reed is privy to the assassination; because there *is* no autopsyprep there; its just a rendezvous point to get the body back.So when Clifton says "One, Two, Three, Four. . ." and "One" is edited out,you better believe he knows!DSLPS: I personally saw Clifton show up at Hofstra, sit in the audience (atthat Parmet held JFK symposium) and rise, shaking his finger in anger (asif he were a loyalist) and say "President Kennedy never would have senttroops in" or some such thing. What utter b.s.; what "old man" phonyhypocrisy.REPLYING TO:David --Damn . . . you're right. If someone knew about Walter Reed, then they werecomplicit in the assassination. They were dirty. It's a pretty simpleequation. Knowledge of Walter Reed is basically guilty knowledge.What appears to be the only possible devil's advocate argument for an"innocent" explanation -- that the body was removed initially as aprecautionfor "security" reasons, but that after determining there was no conspiracyorimminent nuclear emergency, top officials then decided to reunite body andcoffin so as not to upset Mrs. Kennedy -- is weak.Sea
