Subject: updated chapter draft
I was mildly distressed when Kevin told me today that the Board may have left town w/my first draft -- due to my rushing it in, there were so many small errors in it. I would have gotten the corrected version in sooner if I'd known the Board (academics all, for crying out loud, except for Jack) was going to see it so soon. Oh well. Maybe Kevin was wrong?? In any event, here's a better-proofed version, with a few substantive corrections/additions (after communicating w/Steve Tilley) and a new footnote or two. (I threw Posner into a footnote, for instance.)
