Subject: Richard Case Nagell Army (IRR) File
The Army's IRR (Investigative Records Repository) had a quite voluminous file on RCN. The Army initially wanted to redact way too much information. It required extensive review by the staff, but over the course of two Board meetings, the Board finally voted on all Nagell issues. The file was either 99% or 100% opened, but I don't remember which. I don't know whether it has gone to NARA yet, either----IRR may be processing it. (They do the redactions after Board Determinations.)Let me check with Jim Goslee (our IRR man) tomorrow morning. I will give you a better status tomorrow.
