AMSubject: J-track projectsNothing new re the defector study since we last talked about it; no projects that require my attention at this time. The Press Reports J-track project was completed but is still listed as in progress. You have listed three projects on the J-track as completed but the circile in porgress is still marked - the Reilly Coffee Company project, the burial/reinternment project checking the NARA records, and the IRC project. I believe Joan has given you information regardng the Secret Service Clipping File project. Finally, regarding the Suitland files on the burial/reinterment project, one would need to drive out to Suitland as there is no longer a shuttle to that location.
