

NR_key_name: 89DC7ACB49ED41AA85256672007C3ED9
SendTo: ejnegin @ aol.com @ internet @ interliant
CopyTo:
DisplayBlindCopyTo:
BlindCopyTo: CN=R ecord/O=ARRB
From: CN=Laura Denk/O=ARRB
DisplayFromDomain:
DisplayDate: 09/01/1998
DisplayDate_Time: 6:36:59 PM
ComposedDate: 09/01/1998
ComposedDate_Time: 6:17:14 PM
Subject: Review Board's chapter of Final Report

Hi, I am sending along to you a copy of an e-mail I received yesterday from Bill Joyce, one of our Board members. As you may know, the Board members are engaged in a collaborative effort to write one "chapter" of the Final Report. Bill is authoring their chapter. The e-mail from Bill contains his third draft and, as you will see when you read his introductory note, he would like you to edit it. Now the bad news. We have not been able to convert the file from Bill's e-mail to WordPerfect, and for some odd reason, my computer will not allow me to print the entire e-mail in a double-spaced format. (It will, however, allow to either (1) print the entire e-mail in SINGLE- spaced format, OR (2) print only the second half of the e-mail in double-spaced format.) Curiouser and curiouser. I am hoping that your computer will allow you to print the double-spaced version that I am e-mailing to you now. in case the e-mail does not work, Eileen will deliver to you tonight two paper versions -- one entire copy, single-spaced, and one second-half-only, double-spaced. I hope that you will be able to edit it in one of the formats -- paper or electronic -- that I am attempting to send. When you read the Board's chapter, you will immediately notice that it is different in tone than the remainder of the Report. I talked to Bill yesterday about calling the Board's chapter either an Introduction or an Epilogue to the Report. He wasn't crazy about the Epilogue idea, but he also said that he had been unable to write the chapter in any voice other than the first person. He agreed to talk to the other Board members about the placement of their chapter, and I assume they will talk about it next Tuesday. I tell you this so that you will understand when I instruct you to edit the Board's chapter, but leave it in the first person. We will continue to use the third person in the remainder of the Report. If you have any thoughts or comments, give me a call. I will be sending more of the Report to you (on disk AND on paper) tomorrow. Thanks again, Laura

To: laura_denk @ jfk-arrb.govcc: anelson @ american.edu (Anna Nelson), JRTUNHEIM @ aol.com (Jack Tunheim), hall.409 @ osu.edu (Kermit Hall), preshist @ aol.com (Henry F. Graff) (bcc: Laura Denk/ARRB) bcc: Laura Denk/ARRB From: Bill Joyce <wljoyce @ phoenix.Princeton.EDU> @ INTERNET @ INTERLIANT Date: 08/30/98 08:35:28 PM GMT Subject: Chapter 7 of "Final Report" Laura: I am forwarding to you the latest draft of our chapter 7, titled for now "Conclusions and Recommendations." I am enclosing it as both an attachment and as an e-text file. It is 29 p p., double-spaced, with ten recommendations. It is substantially reorganized, written in a particular voice, and it needs copy editing. Ideally, I'd put this aside for a few days, then pick it up and edit it from here to there. But that cannot happen here. I have sought to render this as positively as possible, trying to attract attention to what we accomplished, not wanting to bob anyone over the head and create resentment rather than support. You should be aware that I have attempted to accommodate as many as possible of the Record

Body:
recstat:
DeliveryPriority: N
DeliveryReport: B
ReturnReceipt:
Categories: