Subject: Getting the Final Report ready for the Board on Tuesday

Cathy:I'm planning to close the office early today, in the time-honored office tradition of extending long weekends to include Friday afternoon. Given that the Board is planning to spend the entire day Tuesday the 8th working on the Final Report, I am, however, going to need help on a few little things before everyone heads out for Labor Day weekend.Could you make 10 copies each of:(1) the JFK Act (2) the JFK Extension Act, and(3) the Review Board's Final Regulation, now printed in the C.F.R. (I think), Defining Assassination Record.It might be a good idea to show me the versions from which you are planning to make copies before you actually start making them, since we have a few different versions of each of those things floating around.Will you also punch holes in the left side of all of the copies so that I can easily include them in 3 ring binders? Thanks,Laura
