Subject:	Russian Documents
Body:	To: David Marwell/ARRBcc: (bcc: Non-Record/ARRB)From: Irene Marr/ARRB Date: 11/18/96 05:32:49 PMSubject: Russian DocumentsMichelle showed me a copy of the Russian documents Jack brought today. As far as we know we don't have a Russian speaker on the staff. However, if you feel that we need to get the Russian documents translated, I know of several people who speak the language. Also, my roommate runs a translation business (and she held a Top Secret clearance as project manager on a CIA contract for SAIC and has done some work for NSA), and she probably has a Russian linguist on her staff. Although you may already have your own ideas on this, I'd be happy to help out if necessary.
