Subject: Re: Former FBI Agents Association

There are 118 Chapters across the country including chapters in Dallas, Fort Worth, Washington DC and New Orleans. The Executive Director of the Society is Aloysius J. (Jim) McFall. Mail to: Society of Former Special Agents of the FBI, Inc. P.O. Box 1027, Quantico, VA 22134-1027 703/640-6469. I've talked to Jim in the past several years on other issues. He is very approachable (he was one of my firearms instructors at Quantico!)

I think it is a good idea, too. There has been discussion about reaching out to groups that would be interested in hearing a speaker representing the Board. Obviously, this one is appealing because we may actually get records out of the exposure. If David says okay, we can get them on our mailing list and also seek them out for a speaking engagement.

It sounds to me like a good idea. I am interested in knowing what others think.

I belong to the Society of Former SA's of the FBI, Inc.. The Society is large (8,000+ members) and is very active in a broad range of issues of interest to former agents. It publishes a monthly magazine, The Grapevine. I think that if we sent a press release or made a more formal overture to the Society we might develop sources of records from retired SA's and from the spouses of deceased former SA's. There are MANY local chapters of the Society around the country, including large chapters at Quantico and here in DC which meet on a monthly basis. They are always looking for speakers for their luncheon meetings, this might give another opportunity to address them.
