Subject: Re: Staff records/ethics briefings

If it's ok with you, I'll go ahead and schedule the meeting to start at 10 am, but do the ethics part first, There's a 40 minute videotape I want to show (that's actually rather amusing) and then have a short discussion based on materials OGE has sent us. Hopefully you can be here for at least part of the discussion. [We need to do at least an hour in order to comply with the statutory requirement.] Since you've already been through ethics briefings and were present for the one held in December, you won't need to sit through this one too. I'll save the records part for last so that you can be present, assuming your FBI meeting doesn't go on all morning. Let me know if this sounds ok so I can proceed.
