Subject: Re: stuff I need

As we spoke about, I'll start off with some envelopes and labels. If I need boxes and tape I'll try to get them locally down there. If you can find out the locations of two or three Fed Ex drop offs in New Orleans it would be very helpful also. many thanks.

We have envelopes, boxes, labels in the supply room. Perhaps we could send a box full of these supplies to your hotel prior to your departure (so you don't have to carry it.)

In anticipation of my need to send envelopes and boxes of documents from locations "out in the field" to our office, David suggested that I take some large Fed Ex shipping envelopes and some shipping labels which I can also use on boxes I can get while I'm travelling. Next week early on lets talk about what supplies you have in this area and lets put together a packet of these supplies. Thanks!!
