Subject: Re: Govspeak
I won't tell if you don't. I love Data, the almost human affection he shows for "Spot", his continuing attempts at mirth and his triumph over the evil Lor. My favorite line "Engage!" by Picard. I don't know if I agreed, however, with the alteration of Hugh's personality. Even if he was part of the dreadful Borg, didn't their interference violate the prime directive?
