Subject:	Re: Investigations Database
Body:	From my perspective it would be more efficient for the team leaders to have access also. In the course of an investigation I often develop information about a federal agency and to date have entered it in Gum Shoe and emailed Jeremy and the appropriate team leader to advise them of the information if they want to read it.To:David Marwell/ARRB, Anne Buttimer/ARRBcc: From:Chet Rhodes/ARRB Date:06/19/95 05:56:20 PMSubject:Investigations DatabaseWe have now changed this to private. Should team leaders have access? or only senior staff?thanksAuthor:Phil Golrick/ARRBComposed: 06/19 02:27 PMSubject:Investigations DatabaseCategory:I used to be able to read what was posted in the Investigations Database. Now I can't. Is this a deliberate change or an inadvertent glitch?
