Subject: Re: John Newman Book Event Invitation
I'm probably the second person to read this, but regret I am unable to accept John's invitation.

John Newman has extended an offer for me to invite a couple of people from the staff to an event he is having this late-afternoon/early-evening to discuss the publication of his book. He will be talking about some of the things he learned in the process of reviewing JFK documents at the Archives. I would be pleased to invite and provide transportation to the first two people to respond to this message. We will be leaving at 4:15 this afternoon. The event is being held in Lanham, Maryland. Afterwards I will drop the participants off at a metro stop (either in Maryland or Virginia).
