Subject: Re: Missing document
I thought that I was saying that there was no such document, but now I think differently. 104-10018-10045 now appears in both the Open and in the Postponed databases. Since the document is from box three, a box that the CIA still has, I am unable to check if the document is there. Sorry for any confusion this may have generated. None of this makes any sense to me. I checked the databases before I sent the last message to you and the document was not in any of them. My inclination is to wait until the boxes are returned to see what is in them. What do you think?
