Subject:	Re: 6th Floor Museum
Body:	Dave, my best recollection about the 6th Floor Museum is that the founder (or co-founder?) of the Museum, circa 1989, although a "businessman" in the private sector, had either (a) documented affiliations with the CIA, or (b) perhaps may even have been a direct employee of the agency at one time. Unfortunately, I cannot remember his name. I heard this at either the COPA symposium (Washington) in October, 1994, or the ASK symposium in November, 1993 (Dallas); I believe one source was a private researcher named Hal Verb, and the second was one of the presenters on stage. I will contact Hal Verb and see if he can remember the man's name, or who made the claim. I know this is vague, but to the best of my recollection, this is not in any books. It MAY BE in some of my research newsletters, but I doubt it.THE BOTTOM LINE: The two most knowledgeable people in Dallas about local matters are Jim Marrs, and J.Gary Shaw. I am 99% sure that if you call one or both of these people, they will not only know the founder's name, but will probably be able to lead you to hard documentation of his CIA affiliations. A third possibility is a Thomas A. Jones (Dallas Area), editor of a research newsletter called "Dateline Dallas", with the following address: Thomas A. Jones JFK Resources Group, Dallas 332 NE 5th Street Grand Prairie, Texas 75050Meanwhile, I will pursue this with my contacts, one of whom is Hal Verb...but that may take 2 or 3 weeks. Sorry I couldn't give you a more precise answer on this one.To:Douglas Horne/ARRBcc: From:Dave Montague/ARRB Date:09/26/95 07:57:56 AMSubject:6th Floor MuseumPlease remind me of your understanding of a possible intel backing of it when you get in
