Subject:	Re: Assassination photos

Body:

I just received a call from Anne's contact with the phone number of the shop. I will contact them to see what they can provide...DaveTo:Dave Montague/ARRBcc: From:David Marwell/ARRB Date:09/26/95 01:25:03 PMSubject:Assassination photosDave:Have you spoken to Anne about following this up?CALL REPORTIssue # 28Document's Author: Anne Buttimer/ARRB   Date Created: 09/19/95   The Players Description of the Call   Date:09/19/95Subject:Assassination photosSummary of the Call:My friend David Brook called today to say he was recently browsing in a newly opened antique store in Morrisville, Pennsylvania when he found a collection of newspapers from November 22 and 23, 1963 for sale. The shopkeeper said the papers had been collected from every major city in the country and were all in good condition. They were for sale for $10.00 each.The shopkeeper also told Mr. Brook that he had a friend who was a photojournalist living in the Morrisville area. This friend was apparently in or near Dealey Plaza on November 22, 1963 and took photographs of the motorcade and possibly the assassination. The shopkeeper said he had seen some of the photos his friend had; he described them as "gruesome." The shopkeeper did not seem well versed in assassination related lore but was willing to talk generally.The name of the business is Robert's Relics, 72 East Bridge Street, Morrisville, PA 19067. The shop has just opened and doesn't have a telephone yet. (Directory assistance confirmed there is no listing for this address or business name.)Mr. Brook offered to visit the store again to get the name of the photojournalist and the telephone number of the shop.
