Subject: Re: Jack's hearing

I'm not sure there were any announcements about it. I learned of the hearing being set (and not delayed due to the appropriations mess) about two days ago. In any case, I am told that the hearing went well and Jack did an excellent job. David, Jeremy, Laura, Tammi, and Joan went to the hearing if you want details.

I think I know what "Jack's hearing" is in reference to but I never heard more than rumors of his nomination to the Federal bench. Did I miss an announcement at the Board meeting last week about his confirmation process advancing? I don't recall any email messages about it - and I've kept up with email in the two days I've been out of the office.

Several of you have expressed an interest in attending Jack's hearing. So that we don't empty out the office (as well as have too many staff at the hearing) we have implemented the following: We will have a lottery and select up to 5 staff members to attend the hearing. You MUST have your supervisor's approval prior to entering the lottery. The drawing will be at 2:00. Good luck!
