Subject: Re: Annual leave

As you know, I have spoken with GSA regarding this matter for you (and others) repeatedly. I spoke with them regarding your case as recently as the end of last week, as a matter of fact. They informed me that they have requested your file and are still waiting on it--they are at the mercy of other agencies and their cooperation with these requests. I told them specifically of your situation regarding your father and they suggested the same thing that I had previously suggested to you--that you will indeed get these hours given to you retractive to the date in Mid-June and that you should feel free to count on these hours and use them. Also, David and I are both very understanding of family obligations and the need to be with family during circumstances that arise. Please know that it would be appropriate for you to not only count on the hours that are owed to you, but also to go into the hole on your leave if you are needed at home. Let me know if you would like to make any special arrangements regarding your leave. I will let you know as soon as I hear anything from GSA. To: Tracy Shycoff/ARRBcc: David Marwell/ARRB From: Anne Buttimer/ARRB Date: 10/03/95 02:35:09 PM Subject: Annual leave I know I've been asking about this for almost five months and tht you said you'd let me know when you heard from GSA, but is there anyway to get my AL properly credited? (I should have been earning 6 hrs. per pay period since mid-June but it's never been reflected on my pay reports.) As I mentioned to you two weeks ago my Dad's health has taken a real turn for the worse and I need to know how much AL I have in order to make arrangements concerning him. Thank you for your help with this.
