Subject:	Re: Library of Congress borrowing limit
Body:	While you're on the subject of LOC books please let me know if I owe them any books. I don't believe I have anything checked out at all at this time but if your records are different please let me know.To:ALLcc: From:Eric Scheinkopf/ARRBDate:10/05/95 04:42:34 PMSubject:Library of Congress borrowing limitThe ARRB has borrowed approximately 70 books from the Library of Congress. Our limit is 100. If there are any books not needed, lets return them so as to allow room in our account for additional borrowing needs yet unforseen. I am trying to secure for the ARRB a study room at the Library of Congress that should help our research. I will keep you posted on this. Your friendly Library policeman.
