Subject: Re: Autopsy ctd.
A quick response to those questions I know the answer to:1. The original documents, e.g., face sheet, protocol, handwritten notes (actually the report), etc., are in the "valuble documents" section of the JFK Collection. Steve is the only one who can access this material.2. The "skull" is at Archives I, sitting on a shelf in the vault. I was looking at it just last week.Doug and I will track down the rest.
