Subject: Re: Thanksgiving.

Clint and I are definitely eating at our adopted parents house, or going to their cabin. If we don't go to their cabin we are eating around 2-ish. Maybe if it is fine with you Clint and I can stop by around 6-7-ish and enjoy the company. Thanks a lot for the invite.

I will be holding Thanksgiving dinner at my house for those folks who cannot make it home for this holiday. While it is still in the planning stages, here are the specifics (so far):- We will likely purchase a turkey dinner from either Safeway, Boston Market, or Giant . (As far as I know) these come complete with side dishes. The deal I saw at Safeway last nite serves 10-12 and costs $29.99. I guess I will ask for a $2-3 donation to cover the cost (I am expecting close to ten people). Additional dishes are welcome but certainly not required.- A bouncer (A Mr. Frank Sturgis) will be at the front door to rough up an non-paying customers. - We will be meeting late afternoon/early evening-ish (5-6 pm). Time will be confirmed by Wednesday of next week.- I will distribute directions to my house a day or so beforehand.- Significant others are certainly welcome. - In order to get an accurate count I would appreciate an RSVP by COB today. Thanks.
