Subject:	Re: Cuba research database (?)
Body:	If this database comes about , I have some suggestions:a field should be created for "source cite": for those individuals who are not as well known, it may be helpful to indicate where this information was found.also, AKA: released cryptonyms and pseudonyms, this may be obvious, but do we want to limit this to exile groups? It might be better to call this a master Cuba database, with mafia and CIA names, groups, etc. in there too.
