Subject: Re: Have all Warren Comm. documents been released?

Body: Mr. Leon:Thank you for your e-mail message which I received on March 27, 1996. Your address has been added to our group list and you should begin receiving press releases, advisories, and Federal Register notices in the near future.An advisory posted by the Assassination Records Review Board on February 14, 1996, stated that the Review Board voted to release 4 Warren Commission documents. The advisory continued, "These Warren Commission documents are the last documents generated by the commission itself that remain to be released in full to the public." There are other 'agency referred' documents that have not yet been released.With regard to your last request, in which you inquired about the status of certain documents, I would advise you to direct those questions to the National Archives, which houses the JFK Assassination Records Collection.JFK LiaisonNational Archives and Records AdministrationWashington, DC 20408or301-713-6620Sincerely,Eileen A.
