I will call him next week. Remind me.

I don't think I have been in the sun enough today (i.e., warming my blood to a temperature conducive for thought). Does this mean you are or aren't calling? To: Jeremy Gunn/ARRBcc: From: Christopher Barger/ARRBDate: 04/05/96 09:55:21 AMSubject: Re: Joe MasihJoe called again this morning to inquire whether there was still interest in his employment here. I know it's been a busy week, so there hasn't been time to call him, but maybe you could call him Monday (he is away for the holiday weekend now)? I would like to extend my personal recommendation that we hire him, as I was very impressed with him when we interviewed him. I have his phone number if you do not have it. Thank you. Have a nice day. Peace be with you. Void where prohibited by law.
